

Organization Development Network

Advancing the Theory and Practice of OD

THE NETWORK

The OD Network is an international professional association of members committed to the rigorous practice of OD as an applied behavioral science.

Graduate/doctoral students enrolled in select universities in the OD Education Association (ODEA) receive complimentary memberships to the OD Network while in school.

HISTORY

- Founded in 1963, now in its 53rd year
- Largest global assoc. of OD practitioners
- 2,100 members with 1,000 grad students
- Collectively serving thousands of practitioners and organizations of all kinds/sizes from all industries/sectors

HELPFUL FOR CAREER BUILDING

- Members receive a complimentary account with the only exclusively-OD resource for job seekers and employers: the OD Network Job Exchange
- A private, member's only OD toolkit of models, processes, and methods to support your change efforts, including Action Research, HR for OD, and more
- Coaching and Mentoring Program

MANY MEMBER BENEFITS

- Free subscription to the OD Practitioner, the Network's quarterly peer-reviewed journal
- Reduced student registration + opportunity to present your research, case studies, and papers at the OD Network Annual Conference
- Reduced registration for our full catalog of on-demand webinars and eCourses
- The OD Network Welcome Group Program (WGP), which helps build relationships as you learn about the Network; REGISTER TODAY
- OD Network Chair Chat, offering intimate access to OD Network Board of Trustees

UNIVERSITY PARTNERSHIP

The OD Network is proud of our ongoing partnership with top educational institutions, such as Case Western Reserve University. Together we are committed to developing tomorrow's leaders across the field of OD.

Join us for a special Intro to the OD Network webinar for CWRU alumni: 5pm ET/DT, July 12; for more information, go to UPCOMING EVENTS at

<https://weatherhead.case.edu/degrees/masters/ms/positive-organization-development-change/>

CASE WESTERN RESERVE
UNIVERSITY EST. 1826