

Play shuffleboard at Hotz Café. Do ask the staff about when Robert DeNiro & Meryl Streep were kicked out	Watch the movie A Christmas Story, then go to the Christmas Story House	Catch fireworks going off downtown from almost any street in Tremont	Eat at legendary Sokolowski's University Inn – it's been open since 1923	Participate in the Cleveland Animals Bar Crawl, which supports Cleveland APL
Participate in a Walkabout Tremont (formerly known as Art Crawl) to visit some of the amazing art galleries	Participate in the Santa Run, which is when you wear xmas gear and run around Tremont in freezing temps	Go to Taste of Tremont, and then regret not ubering because parking is a nightmare	Try a free class at Tremont Athletic Club... they affectionately call themselves the TAC army	Eat at whatever restaurant occupies the space at the corner of W. 11 and Kenilworth
Use the take-a-book, leave-a-book boxes by Tremont Elementary and library	Eat at Cleveland's original Barrio location in Tremont on Literary Ave.	TREMONT BINGO	Take advantage of new Metroparks access right by the famous "Cleveland" sign on Abbey Ave.	Bring your own meal into the Flying Monkey bar to watch any sports game
Get trapped in Tremont b/c you forgot about the Marathon and ALL roads are blocked	Cleveland is full of local ice creamers, but Tremont's is the best – Scoops – only open in summer	Eat at Grumpy's! Classic diner food breakfast. None of their mugs are the same AND it's BYOB	Run through Tremont as a part of the Rite Aid Marathon	Go to one night of Arts in August in Lincoln Park to listen/watch some talented groups perform
Be grateful it is at the intersection of ALL of our major highways and is the MOST accessible neighborhood	Like dogs. You must like dogs to be in Tremont for over one hour b/c they are everywhere	Count the number of leg lamps in the windows of Tremont businesses	Try the new Tremont General Store! Locally grown goods, emphasis on sustainable production	Eat at Edison's pizza and DO use the honey that they provide. You won't regret it.